

Visible Leaders' Network Event

Enhancing Black and Minority Ethnic Leadership within the NHS

Wednesday 22nd March 2017

Taking Place at: Burleigh Court, Loughborough

Following the success of the last network event in November, the Visible Leaders Network supported by the East Midlands Leaders Academy are excited to announce the initial details of our next event – 'Enhancing Black and Minority Ethnic Leadership within the NHS'

Date: 22nd March 2017

Venue: Burleigh Court, Loughborough University LE11 3GR

The Event Programme includes:

- Discussion surrounding the power of a social movement and how the visible leaders network could harness this.
- The Healthcare Leadership Model, what is it? why is it important? how can BME staff use it?
- Networking and Sharing of experiences, along with the impact the last event may have had
- Inspirational Speech from Wilfred Emmanuel-Jones (also known as 'The Black Farmer') giving an insight into his own personal story, his NHS experience, why he feels ethnic minorities should be given more opportunities and the importance of not sliding into a culture of victimhood. (for more information on Wilfred please see the attachment)

This event is a must if you're a band 5 – 8a, of BME background, work for an NHS organisation in the East Midlands and are currently in, or thinking of, embarking on a leadership role.

Please be aware that places are limited and will be available on a first come first serve basis. If you would like to attend please click here to sign up. You will receive an email from the academy to confirm if you have secured a place.

If you have any queries surrounding this even please do not hesitate to contact either Barry Smith (Programme Co-ordinator) or Vicki Richardson (Programme Lead) on eastmidlands.leadershipacademy@nottshc.nhs.uk or 0115 748 4277.
